9. The Department of History organized a series of activities on aimed at fostering critical thinking, creativity, and sensitivity among students. Approximately 50 students participated in these events, which included group discussions and creative writing exercises on February 14, 2025. As part of the creative writing activity, students penned letters to trailblazing women in Indian history, showcasing their understanding of and appreciation for these visionaries. A group discussion moderated by faculty members Dr. Renu Baliyan and Dr. Parvesh saw enthusiastic participation from students, including Ms. Tanya, Ms. Mahak, Ms. Jhilmil, Ms. Janvi, Ms. Sapna, Ms. Avni, Ms. Tammana, Ms. Ritika, and Ms. Sejal. The discussion cantered around pressing issues such as gender discrimination, Savitribai Phule's vision, corruption in India, and other topics raised by the students. The exchange of ideas was lively, informative, and fruitful.

10. A workshop is being organized by the History Department on February 15, 2025 on the topic Social and Gender Justice: Savitribai Phule's Reformation. The chief guest of the workshop was Professor Dr. S.K. Chahal, Dean of Social Sciences and Chairperson of the History Department, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra. Dr. S.K. Chahal enlightened the students about the contributions of Savitribai Phule in the field of education. He apprised the students about the efforts and sacrifices of Savitribai Phule and Mahatma Jyotiba Phule, who ignited the flame of education. As the workshop aimed to shed light on the topic of gender justice, the chief speaker enlightened the students about the social conditions of the nineteenth century in this workshop. The students played a role in the conclusion of the workshop by filling out feedback forms. Students of the History Department, including Tamanna, Avni, Janvi, Tanya, Sejal, Ritika, Rajani, Khushi , Mahak and others, asked questions to the chief speaker, satisfying their curiosity. In addition to the workshop, an open quiz was organized in which the students participated enthusiastically.
