College for Women, in collaboration with the Anti-Corruption Foundation of India (ACFI), organized a Vigilance Awareness Campaign on November 13, 2024, under the theme “Corruption-Free India”. This campaign was held as part of the Central Vigilance Commission’s mission to foster integrity and accountability. The event featured several activities aimed at raising awareness about anti-corruption practices. Principal Ms. Meenu Sharma encouraged the students to be catalysts for positive change. Interactive Session/Lectures by distinguished speakers- Mr. Narender Arora, National Supremo of ACFI, and Chief Guest of the function urged everyone to work together for a corruption-free nation. Ms. Nisha Gupta emphasized the power of collective action against corruption, and Mr. Surender Mohan Gaba, who highlighted the role of youth in shaping a transparent society. Declamation Contest was organised where students passionately expressed their views on a corruption-free India. Results: Tanya Sharma won the first position, followed by Nisha in second place, and Shikha Sharma in third. Pledge was adopted in which participants committed to uphold values of honesty and integrity.
