CRITERION I–CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 Curriculum Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 Institution has the mechanism for well-planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words

Since the college is affiliated to Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra; so it has to follow the 'Scheme and Curriculum' as provided by Kurukshetra University for different courses. For planning and implementation of this university curriculum, college has developed its own strong mechanism for all the courses. For ensuring overall efficiency of this planning and implementation mechanism for curriculum; an annual 'Action Plan' is designed before the start of session and all the stakeholders (like students, teachers, parents, governing bodies and non-teaching employees) are extensively sensitized on this plan. As part of this plan, college prepares its own 'Annual Academic Calendar' which gives an account of schedules for different activities to be undertaken by various departments, clubs or societies. As per this mechanism, different steps taken by the college are:

(a) Every teacher makes his/her monthly teaching plan as per the prescribed syllabus and then this plan is well publicized by displaying on college notice boards.

(b) Heads of the departments regularly check with the faculty that this plan is being adhered in strict terms. Students are also encouraged to give their feedback/suggestions on this adherence to monthly teaching plan.

(c) After completion of 20% of the syllabus, an assignment is given to the students to check their understanding of the subject, as per examination pattern.

(d) After this examination cell of the college conducts sessionals (tests), once in a semester and for this a schedule/date sheet is prepared well in advance, which is displayed at various places for the students.

(e) Besides these sessionals; surprise tests, quizzes and group discussions, seminars, ppt are often held in the class to test knowledge of the students.

(f) For students weak in studies, extra classes are regularly planned in specific subjects.

(g) For meritorious students, extra classes are held to prepare them for competitions.

Apart from these primary steps, college supplements its academic inputs with a number of other activities and these are:

(a) Subject experts from renowned institutions/universities are regularly invited in all the departments of the college to interact with the students and deliver lecture on latest developments in their subjects.

(b) Students are regularly involved in activities like Group Discussions, Debates, Declamations, Quizzes etc. This enhances their participatory skills, besides giving them an opportunity to showcase their talents and skills.

(e) Teaching faculty of the college is encouraged to attend Refresher/Orientation Courses to update themselves on latest developments in their subject areas.

(f) College regularly organizes National/International Seminars and Workshops. Experts from renowned institutions/universities share their experiences and research to update students/teachers on all recent developments in the area.

(g) There are mentor-mentee groups in the college; wherein a group of students are put under the guidance of a faculty member. There are regular meetings between the teacher and the students, where students discuss their personal issues including academic ones.

(h) College is making all out efforts to include ICT based educational technologies like use of ppts, multimedia, smart classrooms etc. to make education delivery more interesting for the students.

1.4 Feedback System
1.4.1 Whether structured feedback received from all the stakeholders.
1) Students	2) Teachers	3) Employers	4) Alumni	5) Parents
Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
1.4.2 How the feedback obtained is being analyzed and utilized for overall development of the institution? (maximum 500 words)
Feedback is obtained from all stakeholders on a regular basis by the college. Students can give their feedback in different ways like:
(a) Pre-designed forms : College has a standard format of a feedback form, which we get filled from the students on a regular basis.
(b) Through Email : Any Students or parents or well-wishers can send his/her views or feedback or suggestions to the college through its email-id.
(c) Visitor Book or Complaint Box : Any one is welcome to visit the college and meet Principal/Teachers to give feedback or suggestions or any matter related to development of the college.
All this feedback is on almost all subjects related to improving the academic/research ambience of the college. These subjects can be quality of curriculum, subject contents, delivery of subject-content by the teachers, students-teacher interaction, college infra-structure, extra-curricular activities, discipline, examination system etc. College has its own built in mechanism to analyse and implement good points of this feedback.

Highlights of this mechanism are:

- (a) Head of the college and faculty members sit regularly after the teaching hours and do a brain-storming over all the issues raised by the students. If any feedback leads to overall development of the college, it is noted, debated and an action plan is chalked out to implement. If required, even a committee is constructed to go into detailed modalities to implement it. Recently, Students gave a feedback that they wanted parking space within the college. Now college is earnestly trying to create it for benefit for the girl students.
- (b) College Principal and Heads of Departments sit together and note steps suggested by students to improve teaching. Short comings in teachers (if pointed by students) are conveyed to concerned persons into a request to reform and improve teaching delivery method.
- (c) For hostels, there are students committees which help in maintaining discipline and quality of food in the mess. Any students can contact the warden or even principal and her feedback is fully honoured for improving the quality of the life in the hostels.
- (d) Teacher regularly sit in departmental as well as institutional meetings to give their feedback on matter related to course structure or course content. Since this is in purview of Kurukshetra University (affiliating University), so all decisions are conveyed to 'Board of Studies' of the University.
- (e) Teachers also give their feedback on quality of discipline, quality of infra-structure; need for infra-structure etc. and all these suggestions are recorded and conveyed to concerned authorities or management bodies.
- (f) Parents of the students freely contact the faculty and principal to convey their view/feedback on all matters related to academic ambience of the college. Again all these are recorded, discussed and implemented (whenever possible within rules and resources).
- (g) College has regular alumni meetings, where old students give their feedback on requirements of the employers from college students. They also give their feedback on existing curriculum, new courses to be introduced, new methods of teaching-learning process etc. All these are well recorded and conveyed to authorities or management bodies for implementation.

7.2 Best Practices

1. Title of practice : Go-Green Campaign

Context –

Increasing global-warming has brought the present world to a point where human life is under threat. However, if the available resources are used judiciously, regeneration is still possible. Educational institutions can play a very constructive role in this regard. We, at KVA DAV College, are earnestly engaged in making our contribution in the drive to make the world greener and cleaner. Little bits of efforts are pooled together by all stakeholders to reduce, reuse, and recycle the available resources.

Objectives:

To encourage paperless activities

To make the students aware about the harmful effects of wastage of water and other natural resources.

To increase plantation cover

To share resources and thus reduce the increasing pollution.

To use more of renewable sources of power.

The Practice:

In order to achieve the aspired objectives, the college organises sensitization programmes from time to time. In addition, wastage of resources is plugged at the individual point. For example, leakage of taps is mended immediately, solar plants have been installed, vegetable waste from the hostel is disposed off in the botanical garden pit, leftovers are contributed to animal fodder, around 1, 35, 000 e-books are made available to reduce use of paper in the teaching-learning process, and interdisciplinary sharing of computers etc. is a regular practice that reduces pressure of increased use of electronic gadgetry. Above all, regular activities are held to promote the go-green practice.

Evidence of success:

- An educational visit to Herbal garden CSSRI was paid on 17 August, 2017.
- Eco- awareness campaign is an integral activity of the college. It entails a whole array of ‘green- activities ‘ such as tree plantation programmes, distribution of tree saplings especially of medicinal and fruit plants to staff & students, honouring the chief guest of various college function by presenting them with potted plants as mementoes.

Title of practice : Providing a platform to empower womenThe context:

Beauty and grace are the two inherent elements of feminine identity. The present day women are making their presence felt in a more pronounced way with the help of their inborn talents. This is empowering them as they are now able to develop a sense of positive self-esteem by showcasing their talents. Beauty contest is one such stage that allows the participants to use the spotlight for drawing attention towards sensitive social issues. It is not merely a display of looks but an opportunity to dismantle the myth that beauty is restricted to external appearance. The college has taken note of this trait and has made available a platform where young participants utilize the occasion to prove that comprehensive beauty is ‘personality with brains’.

Objectives:

To empower young students by building a sense of self-worth.

To groom the girls and enhance their self-confidence.

To guide the girls regarding the real concept of beauty and hence emphasize the role of education in making an individual beautiful.

To prepare the girls for a future life where they are enabled to face the unforeseen challenges.

To make the girls appreciate the blessings of being born as a woman.

The Practice:

The college is working continually to promote self-worth amongst its students. We cater to around 50 % students from the rural heartland of Haryana, where gender-bias is still not uprooted completely. The girls from the city too enter the campus with the hope to grow as valuable human resource. We attempt to instil in all these girls an ideal blend of modernity and tradition in keeping with the DAVian values of anglo-vedic. This makes the young minds develop a strong sense of appreciation for the cultural heritage as well as acceptance of the modern outlook. The Department of Home Science is actively engaged in empowering our students by helping them make optimal use of culture and beauty. The activities and programmes undertaken to achieve this end include training in beauty-care both for personal and professional purposes. Another regular activity conducted for empowering women is the annual fashion show where girls from the fashion designing course showcase their talent.

Evidence of success:

Ms Kajal , B.A II, who was prepared for a beauty contest , won the Miss Haryana 2018 title.

Ms World Punjaban, held in Canada on Nov 11, 2017, was won by our student Ms Gurpreet Kaur, B.Sc III.

Ms Arshpreet Kaur, student of B.Sc. II, won the Miss Karnal title in an event held on 22 January, 2018 at Rajgharana, Karnal. The prize included a diamond encrusted crown, a trophy and a cash prize of Rupees 20,000/-

Ms Smriti Sharma, B.Sc. Medical II, was adjudged second runner up in the same event.

Dresses showcased during the annual fashion show, Bellza, are put up for sale thereby meeting the demands of buyers for well-crafted designs.

The girls who get trained in the cosmetology section also ‘earn as they learn’ by providing professional services to staff and students.

7.3 Institutional DistinctivenessDharohar* : a blend of ‘faith and logic’

- The college endeavours to realize its vision of educating and empowering women through the ideal blend of anglo-vedic principles propounded by Swami Dayanand Saraswatiji. We, at KVA DAV Karnal, provide a distinctive environment supporting heritage and cultural values of karma and social commitment. A unique practice undertaken regularly by the college in this regard is the imparting of Dharam Shiksha and assessing it by way of an annual exam. The contents of this exam are based on the Satyarth Prakash that is the interpretation of Vedas by Swami Dayanand Saraswatiji and the Upanishads. Translated as "The Light of Meaning of the Truth" or The Light of Truth the Satyarth Prakash was written in 1875. The essence of the book lies in the words “We repeatedly bow unto God who is a true personification of Existence, Consciousness, and Bliss”. The Dharam Shiksha exam conducted by the college intends to imbibe the above stated principles of the Satyarth Prakash and the ancient scripture of the Upanishads. This exam is written approximately by over two hundred students every year. The successful ones are awarded the naitik shiksha certificate by the Arya Vidya Sabha. This helps to prepare the younger generation as future flag bearers of anglo-vedic knowledge.
- The college looks towards a tomorrow where our students are competent enough to assimilate the changes of the progressive world without losing their distinctive identity as the products of Indian tradition and heritage. This exclusive practice gives us an edge to contribute such young lives to the society that assure to safeguard the special place that India enjoys on the international platform. A distinctive activity conducted regularly to achieve this end is the Havan ceremony as per the vedic sanskriti (tradition). The girls and the staff participate in this sacrament to gain the advantage of peace and serenity amidst the chanting of mantras.
- In addition to these practices, efforts are underway to include alternative healthcare programmes, like Yoga, to promote traditional heritage.
